To the GENTLEMEN, CLERGY, and FREEHOLDERS of the COUNTY of LINCOLN.

HAVING had the high and distinguished honour of being one of the Representatives of the County of Lincoln in two successive Parliaments, I should have ventured to have offered myself again for that service, had I not experienced that my present state of health will not permit me to do my duty. Wherefore, warmly as I must ever feel myself attached to the County for their past partiality, I should think myself very undeserving, if I should endeavour to retain that exalted situation when I am incapable of attendance. I therefore with great regret am obliged to decline offering myself as a Candidate at the ensuing Election, very sensible that there are many much abler and fitter for the trust, but none can have greater zeal for the welfare and prosperity of the County of Lincoln, than, Gentlemen,

Your faithful and obliged humble Servant,

Dover-street, June 13, 1802. ROBERT VYNER.
